

Culture Budo association membership form

Culture Budo aims to promote Japanese culture and martial art traditions in all forms

Culture Budo is behind the Sakura Project to set up a space bringing together in one place cultural activities such as: shows, conferences, Ikebana, Origami, calligraphy and so on...

But also martial arts activities such as Aikido, Iaido, karate, judo...

This place will be able to house various associations on the condition that their members belong to ours and that they respect the criteria in our regulations

The regulations are available here : www.culture-budo.net

Under no circumstances may competitions be organised on the premises
